Communication skills

I possess excellent social and mediation skills, I always try to use communication and dialogue as my principle means to overcome problems. I have experience working in the field of mediation, working towards alternative resolutions of conflicts and finding an agreement between parties. I obtained a certificate issued by the Ministry of Justice as a civil mediator in 2011. I have worked with several cultural associations for the promotion of cultural exchange.

Organisational / managerial skills

I am able to work well independently, in particular I know how to manage my time to achieve overall targets by dividing the work up and setting myself my own deadlines.

I have worked on numerous business model projects, for which I was responsible for bringing together different elements such as people with relevant expertise in order to reach an objective. I work closely with people, maintaining good communication between parties so as to maximize results. One of the most important experiences in this regard was the coordination of the activities of wide international partnerships.

I am very skilled in the management of EU project on a technical, financial, and legal level

I have very competent in IT and languages necessary to complete tasks

Job-related skills

I am an energetic and motivated person, accustomed to working to targets and with strict deadlines.
